

The Battle of the Schools Commences.....

Alphington v Exminster

‘Bob-a-job’

A group of teachers from both Alphington Primary and Exminster Primary are spending June half term working with the children and teachers in Nayamba school, Zambia. We have 400kg of luggage to take with us and we are raising money to fill our suitcases with resources to leave at the school. Our main focus is reading with lots of PE and fun Art activities as well.

We are asking for you to help raise money by doing the daily chores over the Easter holidays. You could do some dusting, hoovering, washing cars, gardening, hanging out washing.....the more chores the better for your family and the better for the children at Nayamba school. Every single penny that you raise will be spent filling our suitcases with reading books and other resources to leave with the school and pre-school. If every child could raise at least £3, we could take over £2000 of resources.

The two communities of Alphington and Exminster are having a battle to see which school can raise the most money. There are 2 ways you can donate your money: Go to the Exminster School Virgin giving page or bring the money directly into school after the Easter holidays. We would love a picture of you doing a chore to build on our community board or a list of the chores that you have done.
