Build your own wildlife garden!

Saturday 22nd October, 11am -3pm

If you could design your very own wildlife garden, what would it look like? Would it have a pond, flowers or even have a bug hotel? Well, come on down to Bowling Green Marsh hide, get stuck in and build your very own mini garden with us! Go searching around our brand new wildlife garden for inspiration and learn from our friendly volunteers how easy it is to give nature a home.

No need to book. £3 per child. Free for RSPB child members.

Events

As summer fades away, come and celebrate the beauty of autumn with the RSPB at Bowling Green Marsh Hide! From making your own mini wildlife garden to showing off your wildlife photography skills, there'll be something for everyone to enjoy this October half term. Come on down and have your own Autumn Adventure with us!

From 22nd to 30th October we will be hosting a range of events for the whole family to get stuck into. Drop in on the weekends to make the most of our fun filled activities or pop in for an hour or two within the week to make use of the bird watching hide and its facilities. Hot drinks and cakes will be being served throughout the weekend. RSPB volunteers will be around throughout the week to help you and your family to enjoy our events.

Throughout the month of October we will be accepting entries for our RSPB's Nature Photography Competition and our children's colouring contest 'Avocet Art'. Please see our posters for more details of these competitions.

Migration Madness!

Sunday 23rd October, 11am -3pm

Can you imagine what it's like to fly thousands of miles all the way to South Africa and back again? Well, why don't you give it a go? Every year, European swallows make this dangerous journey to search for warm winter feeding grounds. Have a go at following our swallow migration path. Navigate around our reserve trails, finding clues, and answering questions and see if you can make the journey!

No need to book. £2 per child. Free for RSPB child members.

Bug hunt!

Saturday 29th October, 1pm -3pm

There are more than 20,000 kinds of insect in the UK. How many can you find? Join us for a bug hunting day to see what kind of creepy crawlies we can find! From aquatic beetles around our pond to bugs in our stumpery, let's search together and find some mini-beasts!

No need to book. £2 per child. Free for RSPB child members.

Feathered friends!

Sunday 30th October, 11am -2pm

Curious about birds? Come and meet an experienced bird watcher and have some of your questions answered. Whether you're wondering why a robin has an orange breast or what the birds on the estuary are eating. See if we can help you out by answering some of your questions and giving you some help with bird identification. Make use of the stunning views from our bird watching hide and see what birds you can find.

No need to book. £2 per adult. Free for children . Please bring binoculars or a telescope if you have them.

Spooky strolling!

Sunday 30th October, 4:00-5:30pm

On the night before Halloween, are you brave enough to join us for an evening walk along the marsh? As the sun sets, we will begin our walk, searching for bats, frogs, insects and other creatures of the night. Bring warm clothes and a torch and prepare for a wild night!

Booking essential. £3 per child. £1 per adult. Free for RSPB child members.
